Puttur is the Head Quarters of the Taluk. This is a rural town, rising in importance and is being rapidly built up. The area - available in the town proper is limited and every available plot is being huddled with dwelling houses, leaving hardly any room for sanitary purposes. The sanitation of the place is already in a bad state. Typhoid and Dysentery are annual visitors here and take pretty heavy toll. There is sufficient room for town - extensions schemes. In the interests of the future welfare of the place, it is necessary to control the construction of buildings. Hence I recommend that the Town Planning Act may be extended to this place.
